What is Kate talking about
Did u show Someone our shit?
Apparently someone who works with us told daveler youre sending pictures/videos of us to i guess people on your shift and "some supervisors know". I was gonna wait til tomorrow to ask you about it because it had me in tears.
I dont have anything.
Well Kate is telling me tht some video or shits going around. Thts entirely incorrect and impossible unless u shared anything. Which I don't see you doing but I just had to ask to make sure. I don't know why you'd lie about it considering we are both in it...

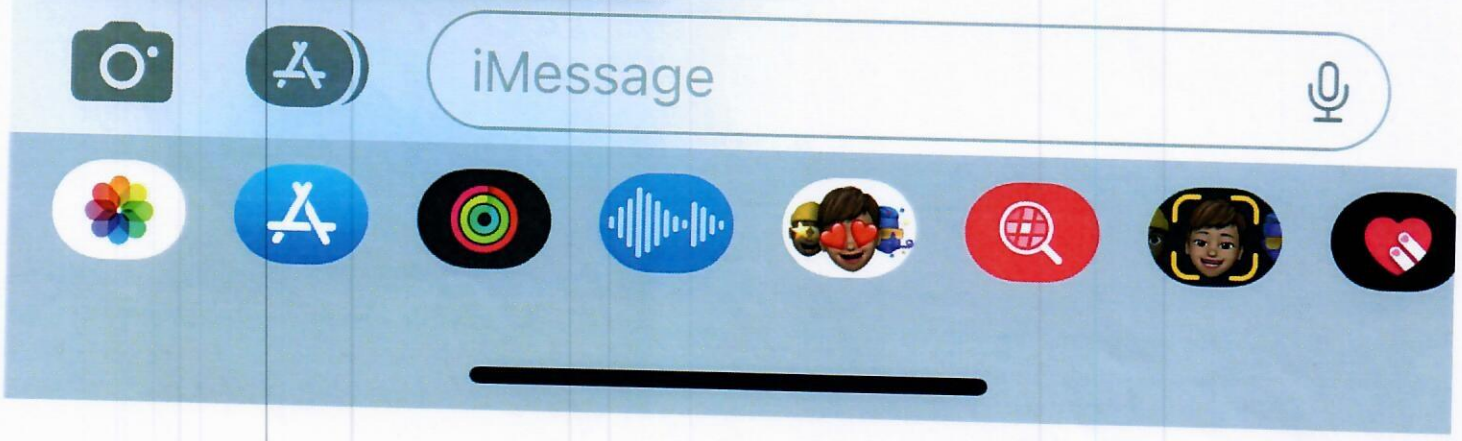
I don't send shit to anyone. So that is %100 a lie. The problem here, is who's starting this? Why would that just come up. We hardly ever speak anymore.

[redacted]



Who's this

I asked daveler who and she never told me

People are such losers

Okay well I'm not worried then. I'm not gonna stress over people talking. There isn't anything going around

Okay well I'm not worried then. I'm not gonna stress over people talking. There isn't anything going around such as videos of us fuckng or whatever. I would never do that with my job. Let them run their mouths. I'm not telling anyone shit if they ask. So childish
I just wanted to touch base with you and make sure. Kate wouldn't tell me who it was even about. Just that I was involved somehow.
All she told me was a "very trusted source" so idk who she knows. Im not trying to look like the department whore, so if you have any can you just delete them.
